

Margaret M. Sievers, age 87, of Storm Lake, Iowa died October 12, 2009 at Mercy Medical Center in Sioux City, Iowa.

Margaret was born October 17, 1921 in Sulpher Springs, Iowa, to Edward and Rose Mernin. She was baptized and confirmed in the Catholic Church and remained a faithful, lifelong member. She attended school at Providence School in Sulpher Springs, graduating in 1939.

Margaret was united in marriage to Vernon Sievers of Newell, Iowa on July 31, 1946. They resided on an Albert City farm their entire married life. Following Vernon's death in 1992, Margaret moved to Storm Lake. In her younger years, she worked in various hospitals and doctors' offices as a practical nurse. She was a member of St. Mary's Church Guild, C.D. of A., choir, Women's Club and enjoyed playing her clarinet with the Storm Lake Municipal Band.

Her hobbies included music, reading, crocheting and card clubs.

Margaret was preceded in death by her husband, Vernon; her parents, Edward and Rose; and one brother, Gene.

Survivors include her children: Steve (Eveleen) Sievers of Sioux City, Iowa; Robert (Karen) Sievers of Albert City, Iowa; Tom (Marlene) Sievers of Storm Lake; Joleen (Joel) Kragt of Mt. Prospect, Illinois; eleven grandchildren and five great grandchildren; one sister, Fidelis and her husband Edwin Hibbs of Storm Lake; one brother, Harold and his wife Lois of Fridley, Minnesota; sister-in-law, Mary Mernin of Des Moines, Iowa; and many nieces and nephews.

To everything there is a season,
And a time to every purpose
under the heaven.
A time to plant and
a time to harvest. . .

As God sows and reaps
Each tiny seed in the soil,
He cares for us from first light
And far beyond our earthly toil.

--Ecclesiastes 3

We wish to express our gratitude for the kindness evidenced in thought and deed, and for your attendance at this service. Please join us for lunch and a time of fellowship at the KC Hall immediately following the burial.
