

Madison Foell, six-month-old infant daughter of Nick and Kim Foell of Storm Lake, died Monday, January 23, 2006 at Children's Hospital in Omaha, Nebraska.

Madison was born July 13, 2005 to first-time parents Nick and Kim (Nielsen) Foell in Omaha, Nebraska. Madison was born with a severe congenital heart defect.

Madison endured three open heart surgeries and a number of other procedures during her short life. Throughout these challenges, Madison responded to her parents and family with smiles and love by holding onto their fingers. The Foell's beautiful baby girl loved to be held and cuddled. Madison showed her spirit and fought hard for her life, earning her the nickname of "Miracle Madison." She was and will always be a blessing to her family and her friends. Madison left footprints in the hearts of many forever. She is loved and will never be forgotten.

Left to cherish her memory are her parents, Nick and Kim Foell; maternal grandparents Dave and Debbie Nielsen of Fremont, Nebraska; paternal grandparents Jim and Terry Foell of Storm Lake; paternal great-grandparents: Dick and Pat Johnson and Helen Foell of Storm Lake; maternal great-grandparents: Dennis and Doris Kreikemeier and Leo and Genie Gerken, both of West Point, Nebraska, and Ray Nielsen of Fremont, Nebraska; aunts and uncles: Jamey and Amy Wojciechowski of Minneapolis, Minnesota; Bret and Mindy Wiltse of Burlington, Iowa; and Jeff Foell and Jon Foell of Storm Lake; Tammy Nielsen, Scott Nielsen and Vicki Nielsen, all of Fremont, Nebraska; plus many cousins, extended family and a host of friends.

Madison was preceded in death by her maternal grandfather, Richard Gerken; her maternal great-grandmother, Edith Pauline Nielsen; and her paternal great-grandfather, Richard Foell.

Precious one
So small,
