

Marjorie J. Madsen, age 80, of Rembrandt, Iowa died Friday, February 3, 2006 at Buena Vista Regional Medical Center in Storm Lake, Iowa.

Marjorie Jean Turnquist was born on November 18, 1925 on a farm near Marathon, daughter of Gust and Hattie (Lutter) Turnquist. She attended Lincoln-Lee rural school, graduating in 1943.

As a single lady, she worked as a telephone operator in Sioux City.

Her husband-to-be, Glenn L. Madsen, born May 25, 1923 in Newell, Iowa, enlisted into the Navy in December 1944 and was stationed in Gulfport, Mississippi. Marjorie took a train to join him and they were married July 28, 1945. They were later stationed at Minneapolis before Glenn's honorable discharge in 1946.

They returned to Iowa and began farming in Fonda for 4 years, then farming in the Linn Grove and Rembrandt area until retirement in 1978. She recently moved into a new home on the farm near Rembrandt and loved watching the progress and being in the new house.

She attended the Presbyterian Church in Linn Grove and had strong faith in the Lord, praying for her family members everyday. She had a great love for her family, especially children. She was passionate about farm life as weather, plantings and harvestings were often the topic of discussion. She also enjoyed a good joke—even practical jokes.

Marjorie is survived by a daughter Carol Goodwin and her husband Keith of Correctionville, Iowa; son David Madsen of Rembrandt, Iowa; granddaughter Jen Derksen and her husband Steve of Blumenort, Manitoba; grandson Jason Goodwin and his wife Brooke of Correctionville, Iowa; four great-grandchildren: Jessica, Tyler, Harley and Tristan Derksen; sister Maxine Schomaker of Cedar Falls, Iowa; brother- and sister-in-law, Ernie and Vivian Madsen of Pocahontas, Iowa; sister-in-law Judy Madsen of Storm Lake, Iowa; brother-and sister-in-law Kenny and Marthann Madsen of Pasadena, Texas; and many other family members and a host of friends.

Preceding her in death are her parents, her husband, two brothers: Lyle and Lawrence Turnquist, brother-in-law Clair Schomaker and brother-in-law Robert Madsen.

In Loving Memory

Marjorie J. Madsen

1925—2006

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;
He leadeth me beside still waters.
He restoreth my soul; He leadeth me
in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil;
for Thou art with me;

Thy rod and Thy staff, they comfort me;
Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil,
my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall
follow me all the days of my life;

And I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

—Psalm 23

We wish to express our gratitude for the kindness evidenced in thought and deed, and for your attendance at this service. You are invited for a time of fellowship and lunch at the church immediately following the service, then after the burial, to Carol's house (4204 110th Street, Correctionville, Iowa) for refreshments.
