

*R*ichard Inman, age 85, of Storm Lake, Iowa, died Saturday, March 18, 2006 at his home.

Richard Royce Inman was born in Storm Lake on April 21, 1920 to Clifford and Nellie (Bair) Inman. He spent his childhood in Storm Lake and attended school there, graduating from Storm Lake High School with the Class of 1937. He continued his education at Buena Vista College in Storm Lake for another year.

On June 9, 1939, Richard was united in marriage to Doris Laurene Sundberg at her parents' home in Linn Grove. They were blessed with two sons, James and David. Richard and Doris would have celebrated 67 years together this year on their wedding anniversary in June.

World War II came and Richard enlisted to serve his country during the war years. He was honorably discharged on March 25, 1946.

Richard was an electrician by trade until his retirement. He was a member of the Izaak Walton League, the local rifle club and the AmVets in Storm Lake. Richard was a lifelong member of the Presbyterian faith, baptized as an infant and a member at Lakeside Presbyterian in Storm Lake at the time of his death. He also served his church as an Elder.

Richard had many interests. He enjoyed antique automobiles, especially his 1937 Ford. He also liked motorcycles and was a student of aviation. He liked the great outdoors and enjoyed fishing, hunting, camping and traveling. He was a loving husband and a devoted father and grandfather who will be dearly missed by his family and friends.

Left to cherish his memory are his wife, Doris of Storm Lake; son James Inman of St. Petersburg, Florida; son David Inman of Storm Lake; granddaughter Stephanie (Brian) Johnson of Sebastopol, California; great-grandchildren Ali, Mitchell and Andrew, all of Sebastopol, California; brother-in-law John D. (Margaret) Sundberg of Eagle Grove, Iowa; sister-in-law Donna (Arnie) Hicks of Linn Grove, Iowa; extended family and a host of friends.

Richard was preceded in death by his parents, Clifford and Nellie Inman and his grandparents.

In Loving Memory

Richard Inman

1920 – 2006

I'd like a memory of me
to be a happy one,
I'd like to leave an afterglow
of smiles when life is done.

I'd like to leave an echo
whispering softly down the ways,

Of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days.

I'd like the tears of those who grieve to dry before the sun
Of happy memories that I leave when life on earth is done.

In His Hands

In His hands I leave tomorrow
For my heavenly Father knows
What is needed for my future;
When it comes He will disclose
Ways and means I could not reckon.
As I meet with firm assurance,
What the present now requires,
I am given strength and purpose
So I ask that my desires,
May be righteous, just and kindly,
Measured by His love, I pray;
In His hands I leave tomorrow
As I walk with Him today.
