“ Arlene was happy as long as she had a view of the lake. I have some great memories of the times that Arlene, Dwain, Howard and I spent at the lake and other places. I wish we could have spent more time together in recent years. The last time I think we were together was in June of 2017, but we kept in touch laughing and crying our way through phone calls. She loved spending time with her family, and I will miss her more than I can say. Her sister, Carol.

“ Oh Aunt Carol - you all had such fun times together!! And so true about mom and her view of the lake. I don't know how you two got through phone conversations actually! Love,
