“ I was acquainted with Edward as a patron at the Storm Lake Public Library where I work. He was always so kind and thoughtful whenever he came in. A number of times he asked my name; eventually he remembered it and made a point to use it when greeting me. He always had a smile and a kind word. Shortly before learning of his passing, I was thinking how we hadn't seen Ed Urban at the library for awhile. We'll miss him there! My sincere sympathies to his family members and friends.

“ Ed was a very kind and loving person. I loved running into him at the park and in the stores. We would talk for long periods. Loved his stories. His sister taught my children and we often talked about her. I know that he is happy to be with God. We will miss you Ed.

“ On Valentine's Day, when I was visiting several friends at Newell Good Samaritan, I became aware that Ed was living there. We met in the hall and my husband, myself and Ed talked for quite a while. I am so happy that I had that one on one with the sweet man. The world is missing a truly kind soul with the passing of Ed.

“ I am both sad and annoyed when I learned of your death. Talked with you on the phone on the 23rd. Had a memorable outing with you on the 21st in Storm Lake. Fun times in Des Moines at the concerts. Will always remember you choosing the wrong pickup truck at the Casey's in Perry. Looking forward to seeing you again. Jack
