Jeffrey Alan Meade was born November 8, 1957 to Jerry and Shirlea Meade. He united in marriage to Karen Lea (Fuller) on July 21, 1990 in Roggen, Colorado and were together since 1984.

He attended school at Elkader, Iowa. His most valuable assets are his infectious smile and never-ending kindness. He worked for the Shelton farm in Roggen, Colorado for nearly 25 years, when he made the hard decision to move to Iowa to be closer to his father. He had an amazing and bountiful garden that he loved to share with his community year after year. The joy it brought him to share his wonderful tomatoes with everyone brought a smile to his face.

Those left to cherish the never-ending memories are his wife, Karen, their daughters: Cassie (Michael) Steadman of Newell; Ashley (Alec) Thiele of Lytton; and Callan Meade of Newell; 9 wonderful grandkids who he enjoyed unconditionally: Chevelle, Ashlan, Raelea, Dylan, Michael JR, Ashton, Emma, Evan, and soon to be Rowan Jeffrey; his brother, Lonnie Meade, Lori (Meade) Kendall; his mother-in-law, Dorothy Fuller; sisters-in-law: Susan (Loren) Hall, Peggy (Jim) Howard; brother-in-law, Douglas Fuller; along with his many life-long friends.

Jeffrey was preceded in death by: Jerry and Shirlea Meade; brothers: Steve and Mike Meade and father-in-law, Dorwin Fuller.
