

Agnes Grundmeier

February 10, 1931 - June 1, 2010

Agnes Margeline (Lund) Grundmeier, age 79, of Storm Lake, Iowa died June 1, 2010 at Methodist Manor Retirement Community in Storm Lake after having complications with Alzheimer's™s. Agnes was born February 10, 1931 in rural Buena Vista County. Daughter of Hans Peter Lund and Dagmar Othilia (Andersen) Lund. She attended Providence Consolidated School in Sulphur Springs, Iowa. She played basketball all four years of high school; in 1946 she received a letter from the Iowa Girls' High School Basketball editor "Congratulations upon receiving statewide recognition in girls' basketball in Jack North's selections in the Sunday's Des Moines Register. Mr. North sent out ballots to all coaches so your selection is a distinct honor." Also from Iowa Wesleyan College in Mount Pleasant, Iowa for being chosen to the ALL STATE team in 1946 and 1947. She was also a member of a sextet that went to the National Music Contest in St. Joseph, Missouri and got First Rating for Ensembles. Agnes danced in a Danish Folk Dancing group that traveled northwest Iowa. She graduated from Sulphur Springs in 1948. Agnes worked at Citizens 1st National Bank and Production Marketing Association (PMA) before she was married. On September 11, 1955, Agnes was united in marriage to Melvin Grundmeier at the Nain Lutheran Church in Newell, Iowa. Together the couple farmed in Maple Valley & Hayes Townships until Mel retired and they moved to Storm Lake in 1987. Agnes worked part time for several years for the Farm Business Association, Gary Rosene's™ Office and the ASCS Office. She started working full time at the ASCS office in 1987

until she retired in 1994. Agnes was always an active church member most recently the Storm Lake United Methodist Church. She was also a member of Married Meters, church choir, Card Club, Birthday Club, Hayes Grange and attended Via de Cristo. She enjoyed dancing, puzzles, playing cards, helping out in the fields and spending time with family and friends. Agnes enjoyed the many summers she and Mel stayed at their cabin in Minnesota. Keeping up with the activities and accomplishments of her children and grandchildren was her primary joy. Her family includes her husband, Melvin of Storm Lake; three children: Gary Grundmeier and his wife Peg of Storm Lake; Lynn Snyder and her husband Rolan of Alta, IA; Dan Grundmeier and his wife Cyndi of St. Paul, MN.
