Arlin Herman Hinkeldey was born April 10, 1934 in Alta the son of Albert and Lillie (Grieme) Hinkeldey. As an infant, Arlin was baptized at St. John Lutheran Church in Hanover where he was later confirmed in 1948.

Growing up, Arlin attended Hanover Parochial School through 8th grade and then continued his education in Alta where he graduated from Alta Community High School in 1952.

Following high school graduation, Arlin enlisted in the United States Army on June 7, 1955. He proudly served his country during Peacetime in Germany where he specialized in guided missile propellants and explosives specialist course until his honorable discharge on May 15, 1957.

On July 7, 1957 Arlin was united in marriage to Marilyn Louise Radke at St. John Lutheran Church in Hanover. Together, they were blessed with four children: Doug, Bruce, Kath, and Julie.

Arlin was a lifelong member of St. John Lutheran Church in Hanover where he was a trustee and an elder. He served as commissioner for the Buena Vista County Soil and Water; Board of Agland Coop.; charter member of Hanover Historical Society and was on the Lutheran Laymen's League.

Arlin was a lifelong farmer and spent 33 years as a dairy farmer west of Alta. In 1998, Arlin and Marilyn moved to an acreage south of Cherokee. He enjoyed woodworking, restoring antique farm equipment, restoration of Hanover Historical Village, and traveling to children's, grandchildren's, and great grandchildren's ballgames and activities for 52 years. In his spare time, Arlin traveled to Germany several times, bus tours, and visited family and friends across the United States.

Arlin loved his acreage by the timber in Cherokee. He treasured family picnics, fishing, antique tractor rides, and giving bobsled rides and shepherd wagon rides to his family. Family was very important to Arlin and they were his pride and joy. He would joke and say, "Glad you got to see me!" He will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved him.
