

Barb Stammer

September 5, 1927 - September 1, 2015

Barbara Stammer of Rochester, Minnesota died Tuesday, September 1, 2015 at Cottagewood Senior Communities in Rochester.

Funeral services will be held at 11:00 a.m. on September 5, 2015 at the Storm Lake United Methodist Church with the Reverend Matthew Miller officiating. The family will greet friends at a visitation that morning from 10:00-11:00 a.m. Burial will be in the Pilot Township Cemetery, rural Cherokee. The Fratzke & Jensen Funeral Home in Storm Lake is in charge of the arrangements.

Barbara was born September 5, 1927 in Cherokee County, Iowa, the daughter of Harry and Elsie (Robeson) Haight. She graduated from Wilson High School in Cherokee, Iowa and from Wayne State College. She taught in public schools, including country schools, until 1957.

On December 26, 1953, Barbara was united in marriage to John Stammer in Cherokee, Iowa. Together they raised two children: Russell and Jacki.

She was a member of the United Methodist Church and participated in Methodist Volunteers in Missions and in Heifer International. She was a member of the Northwest Iowa Archaeology Society and was a master gardener.

Her family includes a son, Russell and his wife, Janet, Rochester, Minnesota; a daughter, Jacki and her husband, Jerry Mungadze, Euless, Texas; grandchildren Andrew Stammer, Manhattan, Kansas; Katherine Stammer, Chicago, Illinois; and Abby Mungadze, Euless, Texas and many loving family members and friends.

Barbara was preceded in death by her parents, two brothers, one sister and her husband.

Memorials may be given to Heifer International, Alzheimer's disease Research at Mayo Clinic-Rochester, or Seasons Hospice of Rochester.
