Betty Jean Stuenkel was born March 29, 1932, in Storm Lake, Iowa, to Henry and Irene Allison Stuenkel. She attended and graduated from Hayes Consolidated School in rural Storm Lake in 1950.

Betty loved to dance, and it was at a dance at the Cobblestone Ballroom that she met her future husband, Bill Sippel, of Schaller. They were married in March 26, 1951 just before Bill was stationed in Japan with the U.S. Navy. Prior to their marriage, Betty converted to the Catholic faith, and it was a source of comfort and devotion for her throughout her life. When Bill returned from his military service, they lived in Omaha, Nebraska, and Conrad, Montana, before returning to Schaller to farm. Throughout their married life in Storm Lake, they continued to enjoy many dances at the Cobblestone, the Schaller VFW, and other area venues.

In addition to farming, Bill and Betty had a dairy herd for many years. Betty was a hardworking partner in the farming operation, driving tractors, walking beans, milking cows and raising sheep. She had a love for horses and riding, and she was especially happy when her ewes were lambing.

When poor health forced Bill's early retirement from farming, Bill and Betty bought a home in Victoria, Texas, with hopes of spending their retirement years in a warm climate. Bill died in October 1992.

In February of 1995 Betty married Dolen Smith. They enjoyed many years of contented and loving companionship in Victoria until health issues resulted in their move to Poet's Walk nursing home in San Antonio, where Betty died on October 16.

Betty was preceded in death by her parents, her sister Lois and brother Cliff, her first husband Bill, and two sons, Neal in 1980 and Larry in 1993.
