Bill was born July 1, 1929 to William H. and Alice (Minglin) Wessendorf in Storm Lake, Iowa at Swallum Hospital. He was baptized as an infant at the Methodist church. Bill grew up in Nemaha, Iowa where he attended school, graduating in 1949. After graduating high school, Bill served in the United States Army from 1951-1953 and was stationed in Korea. More than anything, Bill treasured time with his kids, grandkids and great grandchildren. He loved taking his family on trips, especially every five years to Estes Park, Colorado. Bill enjoyed fishing and he loved to support his daughters, grandkids, and great grandkids in their various activities.

Bill was a member of the First Congregational Church in Newell where he served as a deacon and trustee. He was also a member of the American Legion, Lion's Club and was a Newell fireman. Bill served as President of the Newell Chamber of Commerce.
