Bonita Donelle Westcott was born January 27, 1933 to Virgil and Beulah (Hicks) Westcott in Nemaha, Iowa. Bonnie had a strong faith. She was a member of the Schaller Presbyterian Church where she enjoyed attending bible study.

On September 18, 1955, Bonnie was united in marriage to Bruce Currie at Schaller Presbyterian Church. To this union, four children were born: Lisa, Jeff, Drew, and Brian.

Bonnie was known for her delicious potato salad recipe. She loved to laugh and joke with those around her. Bonnie enjoyed opening her home to her family for gatherings and graciously took her friends in Schaller around to their

“ Bonnie, I loved you a lot. Maybe you didn't know that because I didn't tell you. I wish I would have. You were so kind to my children and grandchildren and that wasn't your job. I'm the outlaws. But that didn't stop you from doing what you believed was right. Forever greatfull and was ashamed of that farce of a service. But your sisters, didn't let you down, thank God for them and thank God for you! My family loved you so much and I did too. Rest in peace my friend. Love, Mary Jo Currie
