

Bonnie J. Hase

August 3, 1937 - June 8, 2012

Bonnie Jean Hase, age 74, of Newell, Iowa died Friday, June 8, 2012 at the Loring Hospital in Sac City, Iowa following a lengthy illness. Bonnie Jean Speth was born August 3, 1937 in Ida Grove, Iowa, the daughter of Herbert Henry and Edna Anna Dora (Gleesing) Speth. She attended grade school in Schaller and attended Schaller High School. During that time, Bonnie played four years of varsity basketball, was the drum majorette and also participated in the school play. She graduated in May with the Class of 1955. On April 20, 1956, Bonnie was united in marriage to George Augustus Hase at St. Paul Lutheran Church in Schaller, Iowa. Together, they built a beautiful home on Storm Lake where they held many fun-filled family reunions. This marriage was blessed with three children: George Paul, Glenda, and Gregory.

Throughout the late 1960's and early 1970's, Bonnie worked as a bus driver for the Storm Lake School District. Bonnie and George became assistant managers of the Cobblestone Inn of Lakeside, Iowa. Later, they moved to Phoenix, Arizona from 1985-1992, where they became apartment managers for Biltmore Properties. In 1992, they moved back to Newell, Iowa to be closer to family and managed the Newell Golf Course for a period of time. In Newell, Bonnie enjoyed the positions of copy editor for the B.V. Journal, morning cook for the Newell Coop Express, and cook at the Newell Good Samaritan Center. Bonnie attended the Bethel Baptist Church in Newell. Many of her hobbies included: boating, fishing, knitting, and watching all kinds of sports. She loved and adored her family and all the time she spent with them, especially her
