“ My sister Cal was called Baby Sue the first 10 years of her life because at nearly 2 I couldn't pronounce her name. She had platinum blonde hair in her childhood. Our mother died after Cal was born, and our grandmother made sure we had plenty of toys, dancing lessons, swimming lessons, piano lessons etc. we played duets together, danced in numerous talent shows and other events in area. We went on fishing trips with our grandparents. We ran and played with neighborhood kids, climbed trees, ice skated and roller skated. We had great fun on Halloween going all over town coming home to roast marshmallows on outside fire. Cal was very popular in high school, was voted Miss Bancroft. She was also mischievous and not beyond skipping school to ride around with her friends, or sneak out on dates with people Grandma didn't approve of one being her future husband Tom who was a little older than her at the time. Our grandma died while she was in high school and I was away in nursing training. That was hard for her but there were many friends, family to check on her and our grandfather. She is happy now reunited with many loved ones, family, and free from earthly suffering and sorrows. May she rest in heavenly peace forever.
