“ Today I was thinking of you Mom, I remember your laugh, and sure wish I could make cinnamon rolls like you. I miss your Lemon bars and one of my favorites you made was macaroni with cheese and tomatoes, it was home made and you put tomatoes in it because you did not have enough cheese, I miss our christmases together and You look on your face when I surprised visited you, I can still see you in your kitchen cooking away, and one of my earilest memory is when You had me in a chair and you were scrubbing the floors on your hands and knees\, and you always cleaned your floors that way. and guess what so do I. its been almost 8 yrs since you been gone but it feels like yesterday, just wanted you to know I love and miss you
