“ To my great grandma, thank you for filling my life with joy and love. I've heard so many stories about you and the person you used to be before I met you and those stories always make me smile. You were such a hard working person with so much love to give each and every day, thank you for that. Without you and your guidance, I wouldn't be half the person I am today. Thank you for all your help along the way, I miss you already.
