“ My sweet friend Cheryl, you are rejoicing with Jesus right now while we grieve our loss. There are too many memories to mention in this space. One thing I'll remember most is how much we laughed when we were together. We traveled to all the sporting events for years together while Brandt, Jill, Lindsay, Gabe & Ryan were in activities. Randy and Loren coaching the boys together. Coming right over to the hospital when Jordan was born. Then when you Home Schooled Jordan, being his supervising teacher. Sharing our blessings that the Lord had done in our lives. Praying for each other and for our families. We always prayed for our kids to marry Christians and that they would bring up our grandchildren to love the Lord as you & Loren and Randy and I do. We always loved stopping in over the holidays for a quick visit while the college kids were home. You will be missed my friend! Love you Carlsons❤️

“ We all loved Cheryl. She was a blessing to many people. I remember the time that she prayed over my daughter for healing in her back and Brandee felt much better afterwards. I also remember when her and I wrapped carnations for the mothers for Mother's Day. She will be missed by us all. My condolences to Loren and his family
