“ Though it has been 3 years, will always remember Connie & Dolores as family. The watermelon he served on his front yard on many 4th of July's as we watched the fireworks is one of many memories I cherish! Family retreat at Camp Okoboji in my youth shared with Connie and his family truly was a huge part of my faith journey. Pheasant hunting with Connie and Jake with my dad is a memory that I will never forget.

“ Oh my goodness, I had no idea Connie had passed. I'm so sorry for your loss. I just happened to be glancing at obituaries and came across this. Of course, I worked with Connie at the bank for a couple of years and we remained friends ever since. My thoughts and prayers are with you. God bless.

“ Our thoughts and prayers to Cordell and Wendy and families. So enjoyed kidding with Connie over the years. His sense of humor was a pleasure. We think of all Connie did for his community and for our school. He was a special humanitarian with a heart of gold. God's Peace and blessings.
