

Craig A. Parkinson

February 18, 1943 - April 20, 2011

Craig Parkinson, age 68, of Schaller, Iowa died April 20, 2011 at his home in Schaller. Craig Arthur Parkinson was born February 18, 1943 in Schaller, Iowa the son of Clarence and Lillian (Anderson) Parkinson. He was baptized on April 18, 1943 at the United Methodist Church in Schaller and later confirmed on April 14, 1957. Growing up, he attended Country School at the Eureka Township and later graduated from Schaller High School in 1961. Following high school graduation, Craig attended Humboldt Institute in Minneapolis. In 1964, he entered the United States Army where he was stationed in Germany, until he was honorably discharge in 1966. Craig drove truck for many years and was presently driving for Gary Deitering. He also operated businesses in Holstein, Schaller, and Galva. He enjoyed golf, playing cards, especially Cribbage and being with all of his friends. Craig was looking forward to retiring in June and expanding his hobby of model trains. Those left to cherish his memory include several cousins and many friends in the area and across the country. Craig was preceded in death by his parents, Clarence and Lillian.
