David was born on May 5, 1940 in Alta, IA to Edward and Edna Schroeder, who owned and operated the local pharmacy. Dave's grandfather, DE Hadden, conducted numerous early weather experiments that provided meteorologists with early foundational weather data. Dave graduated from Alta High School in 1958 and received an accounting certificate from the Commercial Extension Business School in Omaha, NE. He then began his career at the Commercial Trust and Savings Bank on May 24, 1959 where he would work his entire career until 2002. Dave later took courses from Iowa State University in Agriculture credit and attended the Graduate School of Banking in Madison, WI. Dave served as president of the Siouxland Chapter of Bank Administration Institute, which excels at furthering education in banking. Dave treasured the relationships he had with his customers, many of whom he felt became family. He loved the personalized interactions and the investment in so many wonderful people and farmers throughout the years.

On October 21, 1961 Dave married Jean Dick in Early, IA where they welcomed four children, Scott, Terri, Michael, and Lori. Dave beamed with pride when he talked about his children and loved sharing stories about them. He was very eager to tell others of how proud he was of his children and grandchildren. Dave often reminisced about family vacations and the special memories he had surrounded with family.

Dave was a past member of the Jaycees and Rotary Club and enjoyed playing golf, watching Iowa Hawkeye sports, spending time with his friends and numerous family activities.

Dave is survived by his beloved wife, Jean; son Scott and his wife Renee from Victoria, MN; Terri and her husband Bruce from Spencer, IA; Lori and her husband Jeff from Spencer, IA; and Michael from Indianola, IA; a sister Connie (Hadden) Hoch and her husband Bob from Storm Lake; 5 grandchildren: Jaci, Kady, Brody, Ashley, and Amanda.
