“ Rest in peace Shawn. You were my next-door neighbor and friend in Storm Lake us growing up. Lots of fun listening to rock & roll records up in your bedroom, 1974-75?. That famous poster of Farrah Fawcett Majors on your wall. I know there was the first time I saw the just released Elton John's Goodbye Yellow Brick Road, double album in your room. So much to look at inside that album and inserts about Elton.
