“ *For some reason, unknown to me, he was nicknamed `Dennis the menace`. Though his menace always was a conciliatory smile and smart comments. He never got mad, was always friendly. Dennis, you left a shining spur on your walk through life on this earth. You were a great family man and a reliable friend to your friends. Glad now to have walked a little while along with you. “ We are saddened by the loss of Dennis and our prayers are with all those who love and miss him. We knew Dennis for only a short time but know he is a great man and that his wife is a loving woman as they and their children have welcomed our daughter Aleah into their family with open arms. We enjoyed last summer getting to golf while Dennis rode in the cart with Chester in Alta and Carroll courses. My dad and him were able to enjoy a beer together and chat during Drake and Aleah's house warming. We will hold those memories close always. Dennis was a story teller and helped us keep an eye on our golf balls when they went astray. We will miss his presence but also will celebrate his life and enjoy seeing his spirit live on in his children and grandchildren.
