“ My earliest memories Of Aunt Donna were driving with the Wolfinger family to Iowa to visit her and Uncle Wayne. She always had a smile on her face and a big hug whenever she saw me. I wrote her when I had learned of Uncle Wayne's passing while in seminary and the words that I wrote I am sure are what she heard, when she heard the voice of God: Well done, my good and faithful servant. May the Lord bless her and keep her, may He make his face shine upon her and give her eternal peace.
