“ My husband, Joe Gregor, was Clarence's first cousin. DonnaBelle was so good to send us Christmas cards here on Marshalltown. Was nice to stay in touch. Joe died in July at age 76.

“ Really have not seen Donnabelle since the Leber picnics in decades gone by. I always noticed that when Donnabelle and the Seiverts arrived it was like Peace and Love had arrived at the picnics. My aunt Ethel and my mother Tootie always had a strong bond with Donnabelle although I personally do not know all the details of how their lives intertwined together. Let's just say that Donnabelle gave me a better understanding of what the words. "in Christ" mean. May the Seivert family take heart as we do that Donnabelle is on to glory. Shalom, Ron Way

“ Whenever, there was a time of Family reunions Donabelle never failed to make sure she talked to you and asked how you were and what you were up too. Donabelle always went out of her way to be kind to all! She was a very Godly lady and will be very much missed and is well loved by all that knew her. Donna Weiss

“ Caring thoughts to Donnabelle’s family. I have many childhood memories growing up as my mother was a cousin. Remember the Rusch picnics at the Alta park, Lots of our grandparents who were siblings and all their children and their children - lots of good food, conversation and games. Cherish the memories of the wonderful life your mother had. Donna Matthew Vandelaar
