Doris Jean Brock, the daughter of Donald and Sylvia Brock, was born on December 27, 1946 in Storm Lake, Iowa. In 1953, Dori was baptized at Faith Lutheran Church in Sioux Rapids and was then confirmed at the same church in 1961.

Growing up, Dori attended grade school and high school in Sioux Rapids. She graduated from Sioux Rapids High School in 1965. After high school, Dori attended Concordia College in St. Paul, Minnesota for 1 ½ years.

Dori was united in marriage to Charles Petersen and the couple was blessed with one daughter, Wendy Petersen. Dori was later married to Joseph Harvey and the couple was blessed with one son, Jeremy Harvey.

Throughout her working career, Dori worked as a cook at Ken-A-Bob, Burger King, and Buena Vista University. She retired from her work in food service in 2012.

Dori was very active in her community where she was a longtime member of the BVRMC Auxiliary (where she once served as president), hospital and hospice volunteer, and was once a Stephan Minister.

In her free time, Dori loved to travel to wherever her sister, Denise, was living at the time. Her favorite animals were giraffes and butterflies. One of her favorite family events was the Brock Sisters Annual Christmas Baking Marathon. Besides spending time with family, Dori liked to study ancestry and have regular coffee with friends and classmates.

Those to cherish her memory include her children, Wendy (Daryl Scharn) Petersen of Sac City, Iowa and Jeremy (Pamela) Harvey of Maplewood, Minnesota; brother, David (Rhonda) Brock of Linn Grove, Iowa; sister, Denise Harding of Topeka, Kansas; grandchildren: Michael (Susan) Groth, Trevor Groth, Emmett Harvey, and Quillan Harvey; nieces, nephews, cousins, and extended family and friends.

Dori was preceded in death by her parents; brother, Donald; and nephew, Jason Brock.

“ Doris and I were lifelong friends, and though the miles kept us apart, it was always a comfort to me that she was only a mouse click away. I loved her for her friendship, her wisdom, her wit, and most recently for her prayers. Our computer chats always ended with, "love you Cuz" and she would come back with, "love you more". Is there anything better than that? My heart goes out to her family- Dave & Rhonda, Denise, Wendy, and Jeremy at this difficult time. May the Lord give you peace and comfort in the days ahead, and perhaps in time, a little smile whenever you hear a bad pun or share a cup of coffee with a friend.

“ Doris was a few years ahead of me in high school but I really liked seeing her on Facebook and noticing how much she enjoyed her family and friends. Recently, we had a high school class reunion and it was good to say hello once again. Rest in peace Doris and may the memories that are shared here and ongoing be comfort to your family and friends.

“ Doris was my close and dearest friend for many years. I will miss her wisdom, knowing if I asked for prayer she was on it, her silliness, which was so fun, her spiritual strength and maturity. I'm grateful that she is running and laughing and perfectly well now, and with family and friends who were in Heaven waiting for her. And, I'm thankful that I will see her again. Jim's and my prayers are for Doris's family, for peace and comfort at this time and beyond.
