“ I had the honor of knowing Doris through the church. Doris and my Mom (Mickey Bell) , and I worked many a funeral and rummage sale together. She was a sweetheart with a good sense of humor. The woman could work like no one else. She just kept on keeping on. She came to dinner date and I got to see her then too. We will miss seeing her and enjoying her lovely smile. Heaven has gained another angel. I'm sure she and my Mom are catching up on the fun times they had.
