She was a graduate of St. John Grade School and Joliet Township High School. During WWII Dorothe met her husband, Cecil at Globe Corporation in Joliet, IL where he worked as a welder making target gliders and she was secretary for the supervising Lieutenant Colonel. They married and moved to Sulfur Springs and later purchased their home in Newell, Iowa. In her early years she worked as a secretary for the Newell Creamery and Superintendent of Newell-Providence High School. Later she worked as a teller at the First National Bank in Newell. She spent the remainder of her life as a dedicated housewife, mother and grandmother. Dorothe was a devout Catholic with a devotion to Mary. She will be remembered for her culinary delights and being an avid golf and bridge player.

Survived by her children, Tom (Donna) Cavanaugh of Storm Lake, IA; Corrine (Dan) McCormick of Franklin, TN; Jim (Lorri) Cavanaugh of Plano, TX and grandchildren: Stacie (Lance) Mullen of Crestwood, KY; Ross (Kaley) Lyons of Franklin, TN; Matthew Cavanaugh of Denton Texas; Jason Cavanaugh of Plano, TX and four great-grandchildren.

Preceded in death by her husband Cecil B. Cavanaugh, her infant daughter, Jan; her parents, John and Mary (nee Goestel) Schauer; four sisters, Marie Kramer, Bernadine Hoffmeyer, Cecelia Schauer, Bertha Schauer; and three brothers, John, Joseph and George in infancy.
