“ Sorry to hear of Doug's passing but our bodies can and do wear out. It was an honor and a pleasure doing business with Doug. There was always room for a joke and that is what we shared the last time we met. A good laugh is healthy for us all. May he be at peace and in God's hands now.

“ He was my Brother in law, and was a prankster, loved to tell jokes and almost always had a smile on his face. He was down to earth type person and tried to make things simple and not complicated. He had a great marriage, I often admired how my sister and he got along even though he did like to pull pranks on her. He will be missed.
