

Floyd Barrickman

February 20, 1943 - March 16, 2020

Floyd Barrickman, age 77, of Truesdale, Iowa passed away peacefully on Monday, March 16, 2020 at his home in Truesdale.

There will be no services at this time. The Fratzke & Jensen Funeral Home in Storm Lake is in charge of the arrangements.

He was born in Thayer, Missouri in 1943. In 1971, he was united in marriage to Darlene Wieland. They resided in Truesdale all their married life. They were blessed two children, Tina and Chris.

Floyd worked as a sewing machine mechanic at Aalfs Manufacturing in Storm Lake for 21 years until they closed their doors in 1989.

In 1990, he continued his passion for repairing sewing machines and created a business out of his home. He serviced sewing machines for people that were from Iowa, Nebraska, and Minnesota. He continued this business until his health no longer let him in February of 2018. He was known in the area as "The Sewing Machine Repair Man."

His pride and joy were his three grandchildren Conner, Chloe, and Cooper Shannon. He loved seeing them everyday and spending time with him.

Per Floyd's wishes: the body has been cremated and no services will be held.

“ So sorry to hear of Floyd's passing. He was a really great guy. Knew him from AalFs as I worked there til closing. He worked on my machine a time or two when I brought it in. He always had time to talk and play a joke or two. He will be missed.

“ Sorry to hear about Floyd passing away. I have brought sewing machines to him to fix for people around here. He was very good at repairing them. We enjoyed some good conversations together. My thoughts and prayers are with you at this sad time.
