

Fred Hall

January 20, 1950 - April 14, 2020

Fred Hall, age 70, of Storm Lake, Iowa died on Tuesday, April 14, 2020 at his home in Storm Lake.

Private family services will be held. Burial will be in the St. Mary's Catholic Cemetery in Storm Lake. The Fratzke & Jensen Funeral Home in Storm Lake is in charge of the arrangements.

Fred Kenneth Hall, the son of Donald and Leda (Hilborn) Hall, was born on January 20, 1950 in Wellsboro, Pennsylvania.

Fred attended grade school, Wellsboro High School, and earned his GED before entering the United States Army.

Fred was baptized and confirmed at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Storm Lake on September 29, 2019. He was a current member of St. Mary's Catholic Church in Storm Lake.

Fred had a love for cars, friends, and family. He was a great storyteller and always joked about solving the world's problems or telling lies. He was a proud father of all his daughters. Throughout his life, Fred was a truck driver, bar owner of the Hideout in Schaller, Iowa and owner and operator of his own semi FKH Transport. After retiring from trucking, he found his favorite job working for Graham Tire in Storm Lake.

Those left to cherish his memory include his life partner, Nancy Peters of Storm Lake, Iowa; children: Joann Hall (Charles) Miller of Campe Verde, Arizona; Wendy Hall (Travis Braden) Kelmel of Camp Verde, Arizona; Samantha Hall (Brandon) Kay of Marathon, Iowa; Wendy Peters Cavazos of Lakeside, Iowa; sister, Leda Bowers of Wellsboro, Pennsylvania; grandchildren: Calvin, Coy, and Carson Miller of Campe Verde, Arizona; Madalyn Kelmel of Camp Verde, Arizona; Dax Kay of Marathon, Iowa; Aidan Cavazos of Lakeside, Iowa; extended family and friends.

Fred was preceded in death by his grandparents; parents, Don and Leda Hall; brother-in-law, Ron Bowers; and son-in-law, Jorge Cavazos.

“ I loved Fred. He could always bring a smile to my face and he had a really good chuckle. I like that he went to church on Saturday nights and out to dinner with my aunt and my parents (when they were alive) as a social activity. His desire to become a member of the Catholic church when he found out he had cancer is so heartwarming and inspiring to me. Condolences to Nancy, Wendy, Aiden and his daughters.

“ Nancy - So sorry we couldn't do more. Will miss the Sunday gatherings at Hardees and all of Fred's jokes and him having to leave early to go home for his nap. Hopefully soon we can gather again and catch up and take care of all the world's problems. I know Fred was ready to go home and not be in any pain. Will miss him.
