April 9, 1928 - February 2, 2011

Gladwyn Francis Langner, age 82, of Storm Lake, Iowa died February 2, 2011 at the Newell Good Samaritan Center in Newell, Iowa. Gladwyn was born on April 9, 1928 in Terril, Iowa to Christian Daniel and Sophia (Dodge) Langner. Gladwyn attended school at Lincoln Lee in Rembrandt, Iowa and later graduated from Hayes Consolidated School in 1945. He attended one quarter at Iowa State University and then began farming with his father. On August 8, 1948 Gladwyn was united in marriage to Helen Sheffield in South Sioux City, Nebraska. This union was blessed with five sons: Michael, Mark, Merle, Marshall, and Morris. Gladwyn and Helen later opened their hearts and welcomed into their family Mary Joanne, who was born in Seoul, Korea. Gladwyn and Helen farmed south of Storm Lake until retiring in 1984 and moving to Storm Lake. He and Helen were able to enjoy winters in Arizona until travel was too difficult for Gladwyn. Gladwyn dealt with his Muscular Dystrophy with grace, never complaining and always presenting a cheerful attitude. He enjoyed spending time playing cribbage and meeting at HyVee for coffee with his friends. He was an active member of the United Methodist Church and also accumulated 60 plus years as a member of the International Order of Odd Fellows. He found joy in visits from his family and hearing about their activities. He was a loving father, grandfather and great-grandfather who will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved him.
