

Gladys Lange

November 18, 1922 - May 8, 2014

Gladys Lange, age 91, of Storm Lake, Iowa died Thursday, May 8, 2014 at Methodist Manor Retirement Community in Storm Lake.

Gladys Kay Lange was born on November 18, 1922 in Sac County, the youngest child of August and Louise (Bauer) Lange. She attended grade school in Sac City and graduated from Wall Lake High School in 1940.

Gladys was confirmed at Peace Lutheran Church in Wall Lake in June 1937. She later transferred her membership to St. John Lutheran Church in Storm Lake in January 1949.

After high school, Gladys attended Hastings College in Hastings, Nebraska. Upon completion, she worked as a secretary in the Naval Department of the Pentagon in Washington, D.C. for a couple years.

Gladys moved to Storm Lake to live with her parents and help care for her mother. She was an employee of Iowa Public Service for nearly 20 years. Gladys was a member of Wa-Tan-Ye. She enjoyed traveling and dancing in her younger years. Gladys will be remembered for her quiet and kind ways as well as for her hospitality.

Gladys is survived by many nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her parents; two brothers, Everett and Harold; and two sisters, Florence Hanke and Dorothy Kincannon.