“I have many fond memories of Glenn. After high school, he worked for my dad and lived with us, until he entered th Army. Upon his discharge, he again worked for Dad and lived with us -the first time I saw him after his return, I remeber yelling "Mom, Glenn's home!" Later Glenn and Audrey lived in that same house, until they moved to their own farm. I'll share one of many memories:

It was winter and I was in the first grade. In the morning I gave a note to my bus driver saying after school I should be dropped off at my grandparents, as no one would be home. I forgot, and got off at my house - as soon as I tried to open the locked door, I realized my mistake. I could do nothing but sit on the step and wait. Later, Glenn drove up, and asked "What are you doing here?" I explaind - he said "You must be freezing!" He let me in the house, called my grandparents to let them know where i was, then left to do the chores. Were it not for Glenn, I probably would have turned into an icicle!

I know both my parents thought the world of Glenn, and always considered him part of the family.
