“ To Irene's family I am so sorry for your loss. Irene worked with my husband Jim at Faith Hope and Charity. She was a very kind person and we loved to visit about our sewing projects and help each other with sewing ideas and solve different problems with our sewing. She was so giving. RIP dear friend. 🕯️

“ Because of her sister, Sally, and mother, Ruth, I became acquainted with Irene as she graduated several years before me. It was later we all realized we were second cousins and we had several visits during the summertime in lawn chairs at Ruth's home in Lake View. Sally and Ruth, my thoughts and prayers are with you during this time.

My deepest sympathy to all of Irene's family. We were childhood neighbors for along time. Loved when she would come to my store in Lake View and visit. Especially thinking of Ruth and Sally. Thoughts and prayers .
