September 14, 1946 - December 26, 2010

James D. Stacey, age 64, of Marshall, Missouri and formerly of Fonda, Iowa died December 26, 2010 in Fonda, Iowa. James David Stacey was born September 14, 1946 in Sac City, Iowa, the son of Cleo and Gertrude (Mackey) Stacey. On March 3, 1947, James was baptized into the Catholic faith and later confirmed in 1957. Growing up, James lived in Fonda, Iowa where he attended Our Lady of Good Counsel Catholic School and later graduated from Fonda High School in 1965. Following high school graduation, on October 1, 1968, James enlisted in the United States Marine Corp where he served his country during the Vietnam War. While serving, he received numerous awards until he was honorably discharged on March 26, 1970. On May 19, 1975, James was united in marriage to Janice Nieland in Miami, Oklahoma. James was a member of St. Peter Catholic Church in Marshall, Missouri. While living in Storm Lake, he worked at Hygrade. James worked at Wilsons in Marshall and cleaned and swept chimneys and cooking vents for Hardees restaurants. He also worked at Marshall Habilitation center and owned Crazy Jim's Army and Navy surplus store until he sold it because of health reasons. James enjoyed photography and his computer. He loved his dogs and fishing with his buddy, Ed. One of his most special memories was a trip to New York City. Those left to cherish his memory include his wife, Janice Stacey of Marshall, Missouri; mother-in-law, Marie Nieland of Storm Lake, Iowa; brother-in-law, Leroy Nieland of Fonda, Iowa; sisters-in-law: Carleen Schwieso of Manilla, Iowa; Karen (Wilbur) Triplett of Storm Lake, Iowa; Rose (Dennis)
