

James Meyer

March 11, 1951 - March 27, 2014

James John Meyer was born to John G. and Anita (Nagl) Meyer at Loring Hospital in Sac City, Iowa on March 11, 1951. He died at Nebraska Skilled Nursing in Omaha, Nebraska, on March 27, 2014.

Jim was educated at Our Lady of Good Counsel School, graduating in 1969. He attended Iowa Central Community College, and farmed the family farm southwest of Fonda until prevented by his health. He moved to Omaha in 1996, and made his residence there along with other family members.

Jim was an active member of the Williams Township Busy Bees 4-H club during his youth. Jim enjoyed all outdoor activities, especially hunting pheasants and deer with his friends. He was a lifelong member of Our Lady of Good Counsel Knights of Columbus.

Jim is survived by his brothers: Richard Meyer and his wife, Lynn of Arnolds Park, Iowa; Jerome Meyer of Omaha, Nebraska; Dale Meyer and his wife Valinda of North Liberty, Iowa; Wayne Meyer of Jersey City, New Jersey; sisters: Maureen Meyer of Minneapolis, Minnesota; Yvonne and her husband, Terry Wagner of Hometown, Indiana; and Sharon and her husband, Richard Wilson of Ames, Iowa.

Jim was preceded in death by his parents, his sister Joanne Jensen, and her husband, Ron Jensen.