“ My heart goes out to the whole "Vanderhoff " family. Such a great loss of a good man & a man that always had a smile wonder what is he cooking up now. Jim said so many wise cracks to his mom Ethel Vanderhoff, a person just didnt know what he would say or do next.. So many memories of our younger years. Never will forget that smile tho..Sending hugs to the family, * prayers to Jim. & his family..

As a young girl I babysat for Jim's children...all three of them...and we have all grown to adulthood and have maintained lifelong friendships...I am forever grateful that Jim & Diane trusted those "kids" care to me...that's what we now do as adults...we take care of each other...and that I promise you, Jim...I'll forever watch out for the whole flock!!! My heart, my prayers, my support is your family's forever! ♡

“ Jim opened his house to my brothers when we were going through a tough time with my mom's cancer. They wanted to continue school at Newell and Jim and Diane welcomed them into their home with open arms. Will always be thankful! Very special man with a big heart, great kids and grandkids!
