“ Sad to see Jane has not survived the cancer. I was close with Jane in the early 80s, when I attended Emmetsburg Community College. The memory of her has stuck with me for all these years, because she really was a one in a million special person. I had to leave Emmetsburg to attend a college in Missouri, and we did not communicate after that. I watched the Tribute video, and it made me happy to see Jane got married and was close with her family, and seems to have had a good life. She always had a smile and a cheerful attitude.

“ Jane was the most amazing neighbor...she would see me out in the yard, come over to visit and always had a big smile on her face, brightening my day. She was very good about brining over special dishes of delicious new or old recipes that she so was proud of. She also had knack for making my day so much better with her ever-present happy demeanor, positive attitude and just her loving character. She was a one-of-a-kind neighbor and friend. Her loss has left a hole in my heart. I truly miss her. Heaven has truly been graced with this angel. - Glenda Francis
