“ Janet (Jany) was our care giver for our daughters, Sherrie and Jennifer Reeg, she was an excellent person and gave them so much care while I was teaching school. She gave them all the love and care young children. Sherrie and Jennifer treasured every moment they spent with her. Our hearts are sad but know she is in a better place. Our love to her son, Jimmy, who was a playmate to our daughters. We'll never forget Jany for all the love and care for our daughters. We know God will give you strength, Jimmy, to feel this sorrow of losing your dear mother but know she will always be in your heart. Much love and peace, Jimmy, Alice and Jerry Reeg

“ I loved working with Janet at Lawton Char Mac! She was such a hard worker and LOVED her job! Then I found out she went to high school with my father many, many years ago. When she moved into Char Mac of Holstein, even with her failing memory, she always greeted me with a smile and "hi Kim" when I happened to be working in that building. She was truly a treasure and will be missed!
