“ I am going to miss my late night conversations with you, Jan. We always had so much to talk about. Divorce, health, our kids, new recipes, new craft items, growing old, so very much.
As I'm sure everyone would agree, Jan was the world's best cook. Gene so loved her beef stroganoff .
We were sister-in-law's for 55 years. I have so many of her recipes and her craft items. Every Thanksgiving I get out my little pilgrims she made from film containers. And the happy Thanksgiving letters she made out of little pieces of wood and needle craft. The crocheted Easter egg she gave me I have passed on to my granddaughters. Her legacy will live on for many more years.
You were a great friend Jan and I will miss you!

“ Janice embraced me as an "adopted" daughter and included me as a member of the family. We had good times visiting and laughing together, and there always seemed to be good things to eat wherever she was. I will miss her hugs and "I love you"s.
