“ Jean was my piano teacher for many years when I was younger-- she taught me to play the organ as well. More than that, she was a caring mentor. She believed in me and was always supportive. We had many chats even after I grew out of lessons and into adulthood. What a remarkable women!!

“ Jean was a beautiful woman. Always caring about everyone else and doing for others when she was able. I will always remember the wonderful times we had when I'd go over and practice a song or two with her. We'd talk about many things. She never had a bad thing to say about anyone. I will always cherish those moments. God be with all of you in the family. Until we meet again Jean, keep playing that beautiful music.
