“ *So sorry to hear of Joe's death, I would like to share a couple of stories of Joe concerning myself (Mike McGowan). When I was around 4-6 years old at Christmas time in Marathon, Santa would visit some Saturday afternoon and we little ones would sit on his lap and tell him what we wanted for Christmas. Yes you guessed it Joe was Santa and he played the part beautifully, it wasn't until I was 7 that I figured it out that Santa was Joe but he denied it until I pulled his beard down and saw for sure. Another time on Christmas eve Larry, Judy, and myself were upstairs around 9:30 10:00 when we heard some noise down stairs we all ran down stairs and Santa was leaving through the back door and of course Santa was Joe, how happy he made 3 little children that night wow what joy he spread. Another time when I was probably around ten Joe came to our house and hugged my mom and said something sweet to her and I could tell by the look in her eyes that she was very flattered. Joe was such a kind person. RIP Joe.

“ I was so sorry to about your loss of Joe. He was a special person in my life. Joe was one of my best friends growing up (we lived across the street from each other). I remember playing together in our gravel pile with trucks, graders and making roads, in their playhouse, then football and baseball. I remember when my Dad passed away, Joe was the first one to greet me, other than family. He drove into the yard, told me he had been waiting for me and, with tears in his eyes gave me a big hug. Then after the services he drove my kids back to Omaha to catch a plane home. A lot of good times, some special times. The video tribute, especially the younger pictures of him and Linda and the kids brought back memories of when I knew him. I stopped by on a visit to Mom several years ago and saw Joe and Linda and enjoyed a nice visit. I've stopped by most of my trips back but never could catch them at home. After watching the video I understood, looked like they spent a lot of time away from home. On a lighter note, noticed his selection of hats/caps in the video, loved them. Linda, having lost a spouse I know the loss you feel, although I know they are different because we knew Paula's cancer was terminal. My heart goes out to you and I hope you and the family can find solace in the memories, joys and love you shared together. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.

“ I remember Joe delivering groceries when he worked for Hakes. He was the best delivery driver they had. I loved unloading the truck and talking with him as he placed our order-box by box-on the old roller extensions. He always had a nice way about him. I feel lucky to have known him. My deepest sympathies to his family! I have some old photos of Joe crawling around on top of the boxes in his truck. I will try and find them and send them to you if you would like.
