

Joyce Ann Janning

November 4, 1927 - June 25, 2013

Joyce Ann Janning, age 85, of Storm Lake, Iowa died June 25, 2013 at the Buena Vista Regional Medical Center in Storm Lake. Joyce Ann Shultz Beeghley was born November 4, 1927 in Newell, Iowa the daughter of Clarence and Laura (Mortensen) Shultz. She was baptized at the Congregational Church in Newell. Growing up, she attended 1st and 2nd grade in Newell until she moved to Juniata, Iowa and attended 3rd grade at a country school. From there, she attended Providence Consolidated School in Sulphur Springs from grade 4th through 12th. It was there that she graduated in May of 1945. While in school, she participated in band, vocal, music and basketball. Following high school graduation, she entered Cadet Nursing at St. Joseph's School of Nursing in Sioux City, Iowa on September 5, 1945 and graduated on August 24, 1948 with a Registered Nursing Degree. She started working at Porath Hospital in Storm Lake on January 2, 1949, working there until it closed and Buena Vista County Hospital (BVRMC) opened March 11, 1951. In 1951, she moved to Des Moines where she worked in the Surgery Department at Iowa Lutheran Hospital. On May 29, 1953, Joyce was united in marriage to Glenn (Bud) Beeghley in Jackson, Minnesota. To this union three children were born: Steven, Jan and Scott. Glenn passed away on February 12, 1965 and the family then moved to Storm Lake on July 29, 1965. Joyce returned to Nursing with the Surgical Department at the Buena Vista County Hospital until September of 1976. In October of 1976, Joyce began Nursing at Methodist Manor in Storm Lake until she retired on November 30, 1996. Joyce was a member of the United Methodist Church in Storm Lake. She was also a member of the "Hasbeens," a former hospital group. In 1988, she won the honor of "Woman of the Year" with the Business Professional Women group. Joyce was also on the Nursing Scholarship Committee for many years. In her spare time, Joyce enjoyed reading, crafts, playing cards, and dancing at the cobbles. She loved watching sporting events in person or on television, especially the Chicago Cubs. Joyce will be remembered as being very talented when it came to making baby sweaters as she made hundreds of them for church missions. Family was very important to Joyce and she enjoyed spending time with them. She will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved her. Those left to cherish her memory include her children: Steven (Beth) Beeghley of Fort Dodge, Iowa; Jan (Ed) Dowdy of Sioux Rapids, Iowa; Scott (Amy) Beeghley of Indianola, Iowa; grandchildren: Michael (Melissa) Meyer of Des Moines, Iowa; Michelle (Nick) Tjaden of Chaska, Minnesota; Stephanie Beeghley of Fort Dodge, Iowa; Sara Dowdy of Sioux Rapids, Iowa; Chad Dowdy of Rembrandt, Iowa; Hannah Beeghley of Indianola, Iowa; three great grandchildren: Izaak Meyer, Brynlee Meyer and Trice Tjaden; one niece, three nephews; three cousins; and a host of other relatives and friends. Joyce was preceded in death by her husband, Glenn Beeghley; her parents; and one sister, Una Mae Strader.