“ I have many good memories of Joyce starting from they first moved to Storm Lake and attended my mother's funeral in 2002, through many birthday dinners and other celebratory events. I admired how she could remember people's names and interests so easily. Oh...and those wonderful salad lunches at the church in September when she would hostess a table. We had a good Fourth of July celebration when I met (met again?) Bob's brothers and wives and shared stories of when Bob was young....Joyce always enjoyed memories. She was pleasant to be around and such a strong Christian. She knit prayer shawls/blankets and gave me one when I had surgery on my leg to remove a tumor. Thank you, Joyce, for the good times. I will think of you whenever I have veal parm and many other times as well.
