“ I have been friends with Kathy for over 40 years. It started with getting a job at the courthouse with her, and from there we had a group of friends that have stayed friends through a lot of ups & downs. We also lost Cindy Kelly Johnson to cancer, who was part of our friendship group, several years ago. I will truly miss Kathy. She was a dear friend and a kind, thoughtful person. Kathy, I love you and hope you are at peace!

“ "No words can express how much she will be missed" I have known Kathy for 26 years. My first encounter with her was an interview for a position in the Buena Vista County Treasurer's Office. She made my experience feel comfortable. She since then has been a friend, even though I have moved on to another job in another town. During my 5 years working there, she has always given an ear to listen and words of wisdom as support when needed. God must of needed another angel in heaven and decided to take her. The many memories of her (and us) will always be held close to my heart. May her family know she is now at peace and "God Bless" them during this time of sorrow.
