

Keith Biggins

February 3, 1946 - February 6, 2010

Keith Edward Biggins died in his home on February 6, 2010 at the age of 64, after a three year battle with cancer. A lifelong resident of Storm Lake, Iowa; he was born on February 3, 1946 to mother, Ruth Mullins Biggins and father, Melvin Biggins. Keith was a religious man. He loved the Lord. Keith belonged to the Faith United Assembly of God Church and was a past deacon and a Sunday school teacher for many years. Keith graduated from Western Iowa Tech in 1968 from trade school and worked in mechanical drafting, civil engineering, and sales. Keith loved to spend time on his acreage working on projects, relaxing, or entertaining family and friends. Keith was a family man. He taught his boys to raise chickens, rabbits, sheep, cats, dogs, a pony and trees and vegetables. He loved nothing more than to spend time with family and talk. He loved to travel to Colorado and Montana to see his sons' families. He was also a creative man who enjoyed drawing, drafting and working with wood. He was preceded in death by brother, Lyle Biggins and his parents, Melvin and Ruth. He leaves behind Lois (his sister) and Ronald Kolbe; many Aunts and Uncles; cousins; and nieces and nephews. He is survived by his wife of 41 years, Donna Mae Biggins; his two sons and their families; Todd Biggins and Jean Gilson (his fiancée) of Missoula, Montana; Chad and Beth Biggins and granddaughter Avery Mae Biggins of Denver, Colorado. He is greatly loved by many and will be dearly missed. To Know him was to Love him.
