“ Kevin and I were best of friends in school, Kevin was an awesome friend that was there for you in great times and would be there during the bad times. We worked at Harbor House in Storm Lake as dishwashers and would set up the party room, as the band would start his attention turned to the music and his smile took over. After work we would hang out listening to the band and dreaming about the future.

Kevin was always that friend you could count on through the bad and good. He always made a stranger a friend, and if music was around he was always listening.

Kevin my friend Thank you for everything you done for me and may you rest in peace.

“ I grew up with Kevin. We met in elementary school and became friends. Kevin, Tracy Dirks and I would hangout and play at recess.

After talking a while we both found out that we both had had been attacked by dogs. We both had scars on our cheeks from the bites of the dogs.

In high school we would have lunch together most often when the class schedules would allow. I remember the conversations we would have. They were from serious to totally ridiculous. Most days it was the highlight of my day.

We would also talk about our futures and dream of what we would like to do. After graduating Alta High School, we found reality and move on with our lives.

We had nicknames for each other. He would call me Tree and I called him Kevey. When we would see each other, we would call out the names and it would always give us great big grins.

We would always run into each other in Storm Lake. And I would hear, "TREE!". We would catch each other up on what we were doing. We would talk about old times and joke around. I always enjoyed talking with him and hate to say goodbye.

The best thing I could say about Kevin is that he chose to be my friend. I feel humble and proud that he did this for me.

May God rest his gentle soul.
