“ I feel very lucky to have had Linda as my sister-in-law. I so enjoyed her generous, giving spirit and her mischievous sense of humor. When my husband Barry (her brother) passed away, she drove straight through from Schaller to Madison in the hopes of saying her final goodbyes. He could not wait for her then . . . but I bet he was waiting for her with open arms as she took her final journey to heaven. And oh, what a reunion that must have been! She will be greatly missed by all those she left behind. I pray our memories will comfort us until such time as we will meet again. Until then, rest in peace sweet angel.
