It's been 6 years and 8 months. I still miss you mom. My brother doesnt talk to me and son ignores me. How much I wish they'd miss me like I miss you. I still want to call you or go visit you on your farm. I have a few favorite things you gave me cause you said you might not get them when I pass. You were right it's all I have except a few things sissy gave me. I have your picture in my living room. Rowan never met you but at 9 she says I miss great grandma. I keep your memory alive with her. She's your mini me 😊😍. Maybe some day I might be able to hug you again.

“ My deepest sympathies to Lois' family. I got to know her better when our husbands worked together years ago and always appreciated her "off the wall" sense of humor. She was a very kind person and someone you could count on. Thinking of you all.
